HPFI® Introduces Second Life™ Program

HPFI® (High Point Furniture Industries) is pleased to introduce the Second Life program, providing a solution for disposal of unwanted casegoods and seating (when no other avenue is available) while preserving our environment. HPFI works with local charitable and non-profit organizations to help furniture find a Second Life. Those organizations are helped in furthering their purpose with needed furniture that may otherwise be unattainable.

HPFI furniture also may have the option for our Second Life program with a leasing company by their receiving the furniture at the end of the lease. HPFI associates are available for assistance in exploring and exercising the various options with our Second Life Program. This socially responsible program keeps used product out of landfills, assists important charitable groups accomplish goals, relieves businesses of additional liability and may present a tax benefit.

HPFI operates in two manufacturing facilities in High Point, North Carolina with over 440,000 square feet of manufacturing space. With roots in High Point, the furniture capital of the world, HPFI combines the skill and expertise of seasoned furniture craftspeople with modern day technology to deliver exceptional value to its customers.
