HPFi[®] Awarded Massachusetts Higher Education Contract

HPFi (High Point Furniture Industries) is pleased to announce that they have been awarded a MHEC (Massachusetts Higher Education Consortium) contract. This contract, number MC11-C07 for Furniture, is effective July 1, 2015 and extends to June 30th, 2018. The awarded contract allows HPFi and its dealer partners to market its furnishings directly to:

- MHEC institution members
- Non-profit, public and private colleges and universities
- Not-for-profit technical, charter and vocational schools
- Municipalities including K-12 and libraries
- Non-profit education organizations

“HPFi and our local State of Massachusetts representative Officemac is excited about the opportunity to work with the Massachusetts Higher Education Consortium.” said Doug Gaines, Vice President of Sales for HPFi. “The MHEC contract award gives HPFi the opportunity to highlight our portfolio capabilities as it relates to today’s higher education learning environments and we are confident that our products will add value as these environments adapt to the changing demands of the next generation of students.”

HPFi operates a 4,100 sq. ft. showroom and two manufacturing facilities in High Point, North Carolina with over 400,000 square feet of manufacturing space. With roots in High Point, the furniture capital of the world, HPFi combines the skill and expertise of seasoned furniture craftspeople with modern day technology to deliver exceptional value to its customers.
