business

It's a team sport now

Today's business leaders and designers are creating more "team-centered" business models that revolve around gathering, problem-solving and group discussion. Even traditional private office spaces need furniture that functions to support spontaneous collaboration.

education

The days of the chair and desk are gone

Higher education learning environments are now community spaces, where furniture supports the gathering and exchanging of ideas. Furniture for education also needs to set the school apart, making a strong first impression while holding up to the daily wear-and-tear of high traffic areas.

government

Meeting the needs of public institutions

Administration offices, conference rooms, reception areas, or large gathering spaces...we can meet all your needs. All HPFi products are on the GSA schedule, as well as many state contracts.

hpfi culture

Where ideas start

"It is very fulfilling to see projects come to fruition from the products and tools we provide at HPFi. I believe we have successfully blended "old world craftsmanship" with "new world technology."

- Tom

Where quality matters

"American Made Craftsmanship is the core value that allows HPFI to deliver high-end commercial grade products at a mid-market price point."

- Doug

Where projects bloom

"Information collector and distributor – that is my job. Pricing, images, descriptions, dimensions...I provide our customers with the specific information needed to best solve their project challenges. People responding is how HPFi gets projects done."

- Ruth

Where you feel at home

"I was out of the contract furniture industry for a while, but quickly realized that HPFi is an undiscovered jewel. I have loved every minute of 'rediscovering' HPFi."

- Sherri

Where customers take notice

"It's the perfect storm – great people, filled with integrity, willing to help you make sure you get what you need for your customer, not afraid of doing custom work and they're very responsive. I'm just really sold on this brand."

- Mark Boyd

"It is essential to have communication during all aspects of production and have the support of the manufacturer come through as promised. We have done 22 offices across the country for our client and have been able to meet their 4-week turnaround schedule with the support of HPFi. They have always been able to deliver."

- Dan Throckmorton

"Just did a local university exclusively with HPFI because their furniture is relevant to the contemporary needs of today's schools. But that was only one piece of it – the ease of doing business and their customer service people at the factory – they get it. They understand what I am up against as a dealer, they make it easy for me to do business with my clients and get a quote out the door."
